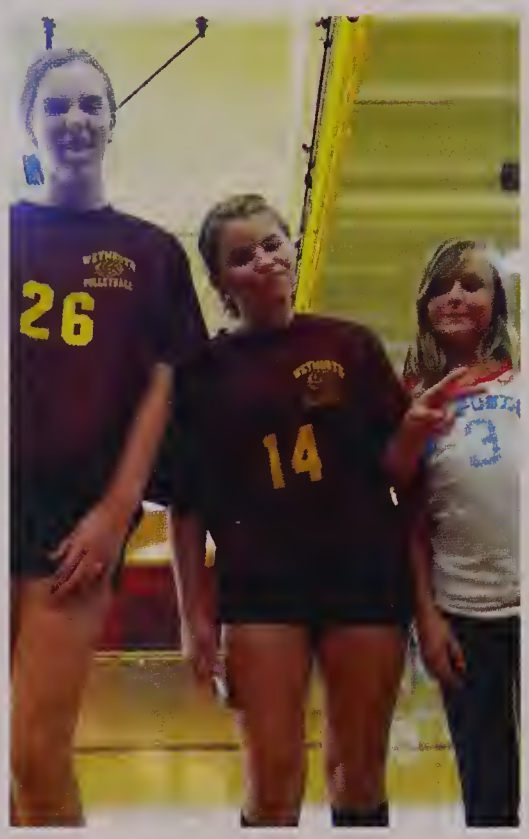
IT'S OUR year

Remember When..



"That feeling you get after walking off the fieild after the first NESBA competition. The music starts to blend with cheering crowd and all eyes are on you. That is the greatest feeling."
- M.R.

"One day when Scott McNulty left the room, we wanted to trick him so we all ran into Ms. Wilburs room and hid from him." -D.D.

Freshmen volleyball consisted of stuffing my face with cookies when coach wasn't looking."
-E.B.

remember when I used to o band with my friends in iddle school. I miss it so uch and it was a blast!"
R.R.

"I remember when the only store we use to shop at was Abercrombie and Hollister."
-K.P.

"Freshman girls soccer team didn't only introduce me to family of support and laughter but also got me into the weekly routine of Papa Gino's feast." -K.P.

To the Class of 2015:

Well, we are finally here, and what a journey it has been. It's almost hard to believe that we have been in high school longer than all of Kim Kardashian's weddings combined. However, it's true; from 2011 to 2015 we walked the halls of Weymouth High School. In these hallways we talked about things ranging from the 2012 apocalypse to Ellen DeGeneres' record breaking selfie.

Yet, while distracted by this constantly changing world, we often forgot about how much we were changing too. We eventually traded in bicycles for cars, allowances for jobs, picture books for novels, and safety scissors for big boy/girl scissors. Happy Meals turned into Chipotle burritos while AIM turned into Twitter.

Looking back, these changes all happened so fast. It seems now that we have been driving in the fast lane this entire time. However, slow down a bit as you flip through these pages of our memories together.

Find that picture of yourself from freshmen year and question why you ever thought that that outfit was a good idea. Look at the action shots from dances and wonder if you still look like a flailing octopus when dancing. But most importantly, search for the faces of those that have impacted your life: your teachers, mentors, coaches, and friends.

Don't forget these people that have helped you become who you are today – an educated and strong young adult. Although the photos of these influential people may fade and wrinkle in this yearbook, their inspiration will not disappear.

Yet, know that you too are not forgotten. There is something unique that each and every one of you brings to our class. Appreciate these traits in yourself and in others, as you recall them. Realize that they are what give you power.

Take this power and use it to confidently chase your dreams. Use your memories here, not as something holding you back, but as something always supporting you, allowing you to remember that there will always be a home waiting for you. And even when it may seem like we are all driving towards different destinations, we will never forget each other.

We are Weymouth High School's Class of 2015.
We are Weymouth Graduates.
We are ready to take on the world.

She loves to get involved in a wide variety of activities -- many volunteer hours helping others, drama, hiking, ceramics, music, work, and activism. There are many people in Ruth's life who care deeply for her and are very proud of her and her accomplishments. Not only am I very proud of Ruth, but admire her tremendously.
